IMPORTANT NOTE

In this price list we list choice selections from one of America's most extensive stocks picked especially for florists and retail tradesmen. No flowers are cut commercially from our blocs reserved for florists' forcing, thus assuring greenhouse men of high-crowned bulbs full of forcing vigor and vitality. All bulbs are harvested at their optimum period, then cleaned and stored in the most modern of air-conditioned and heat-controlled warehouses in the West. This insures perfect curing. All fields are carefully and rigidly field inspected and checked a number of times during the year, and especially during topping and harvesting. All bulbs are carefully fumigated according to state regulations and are shipped out under state certificate. No effort is spared to insure our customers the best in glads. For variety, for quality, for quantity—look to Cameron in the far West for glads, as so so many greenhouse men and retailers throughout the length and breadth of the United States. Our Seal of Quality on each shipment is your assurance of our untiring efforts to give you the best.

OTHER LILIES

FOR FLORIST AND RETAIL GARDEN TRADE

Time now to consider Lilies from the Northwest's great fields. All bulbs are of blooming size. In some instances sizes are not indicated because of the irregular nature or shape of the bulb or because, due to the nature of the variety, the bulb is of one size.

L. BELLINGHAM HYBRID SEEDLINGS. A new race produced by the late Dr. Griffiths, ranging from 3 to 6 ft. in a gorgeous array of orange-yellow to rich orange-red. Of Pardalinum parentage. Blooms June-July.

L. CANADENSE FLAVUM (Canada Lily). Produces graceful bell-like flowers of vivid yellow, spotted brown. Blooms in July on tall stems from 2 to 5 feet.

Flowering size $22.00 per 100

L. DAVIDI. A reflexed cinnabar-red lily similar to Willmottiae. Blooms in July on stems up to 6 feet, bearing as many as 20 blossoms. Very distinctive.

Flowering size $22.00 per 100

L. DAVMOTTIAE. Reflexed cinnabar-red flowers, the result of crossing L. Davidi with L. Willmottiae. Flowers July.

Flowering size $22.00 per 100

L. MAXIMOWICZI WADAI. Deep orange-red flowers dotted mahogany on tall stems reaching up to 6 feet. A very showy variety from Manchuria. Blooms July-July.

Flowering size $22.00 per 100

L. PARDALINUM ANGUSTIFOLIUM. Almost identical with Leopard Lily but with narrower foliage. Very free-flowering.

Flowering size $22.00 per 100

L. WILLMOTTIAE. Beautiful recurved rich orange-red flowers blooming on stems 4 to 6 feet high. Blooms in July with up to 20 flowers on a plant.

Flowering size $25.00 per 100

CALADIUMS

FANCY LEAVED

Delivery December on

These striking flat leaves shaped like elephant's ears come in a wide variety of shades varying from white to red, with exotic markings, ribbings and borders. Greenhouses will find the white varieties particularly suited for Easter trade if planted the first of the year. Retail tradesmen will find Caladiums just the thing for customers looking for winter pot items. Also good for outside planting in late spring when weather is warm.
